1. The CHAIRMAN recalled that, since only three candidates had obtained the required absolute majority for election as members of the Committee, a second ballot restricted to 14 candidates would be held to fill the remaining places, in accordance with rule 15 of the rules of procedure (CRC/SP/L.1).

However, since three candidates had tied at 26 votes each, he proposed that the nine candidates who had obtained the largest number of votes in the previous ballot should be included in the third round of balloting.
